

twice a day he takes a vacation. Driving to work in the morning and making the run home at night, he's the most carefree man on the street. Why should this be? In basic terms, a Corvette is little different from other cars. Stiffer suspension maybe, more efficient brakes, a lot more acceleration. . . . But where's the romance, the excitement we talk about? Here's where: It's the high pitched sound of that lovely V8 engine in full song . . . the feel of the sun on the back of your neck as you swing out of the parking lot and point that powerful machine toward home. . . . It's anything you do in a Corvette, even if it might have been dull in other, lesser cars. Heck, Corvette people can get as much kick out of driving to work as some of us get from a trip to Europe!
